

Pastor Jack Myers Prophecy 12.14.25 AM

Hallelujah, thank you Father! I have a sense in my spirit man that there's coming some wonderful changes for you, even into this new year. This may have been one of the hardest years for you, but God is turning that around.

And, when you enter into the next 12 months, it will be a phenomenal year. It'll be a phenomenal year for those that are sticking in the game. It'll be a phenomenal year for those that have not given up. It'll be a phenomenal new year for those that obeyed the things that God has asked them to be obedient to.

It'll be a phenomenal year for those that are doers of the Word.

Oh, my goodness, see there's a condition that seems to go on. It's not just going to fall on anybody and everybody. Those that are doers of the Word, those that are pressing in, those that are making adjustments, those that are moving forward. Not that you have to be perfect, you don't have to be perfect. It's the progressive moving forward, it's the progressive moving spiritually forward. That's where the blessing is invoked.

If you look at what God said, "He said I would rather have obedience than sacrifice" and when you look at that, then everyone that obeyed, they were extremely blessed. They were, they were extremely cared for.

Not that God doesn't care for you, but He's a conditional God. He has His Word and if you're a doer of the Word and you're a speaker of the Word and you're pressing into the things of the Spirit and that's where you're OK.

But when you pull back, when you draw back, it's a dangerous thing to walk up to light and then draw back from light.

Hallelujah, and there's some prayers that you've been praying that are going to be answered.

Things that you've been standing on and believing God for. Look what the Lord did for you this last year and the last 12 months. How He's preserved you, how He's rescued you!

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Thank you, Jesus! Thank you, Jesus!

And, if there's some adjustments that you need to make even if they're hard adjustments, who doesn't have to make hard adjustments sometimes? You, you, you, you, if you'll make them, the grace will be there for you to keep it.

And I hear the Spirit of the Lord say that "even to be greater grace, ask of Me and in the time that you need grace, I will give it to you. I will bestow it upon you."

And some of you have felt so lonely and so separated, that's going to change. I will never leave you; I will never forsake you, and you know this but the feelings of being alone, your family is not with you, you're the only one out of your family.

Well, if you're visiting here, welcome to the new Life Family Church.

We'll be your family, we'll love on you, we'll care for you, we'll help you.

Glory to God, I feel the anointing of the Holy Ghost! So wonderful! You're not alone, you're not alone. You may feel lonely, but you're not alone. You may feel that nobody understands you, but God understands you.

Hallelujah, thank you Jesus! There will be some particular areas in your life where that which is hard, God is going to make easy. But then there'll be other areas in your life that you'll have to work your faith in. You'll have to exercise your faith. Sometimes, God just reaches down and takes whatever He needs to take, and then He leaves other things so that you can believe him for it. He's not ever gonna remove that out of your life because that's faith that pleases the Lord. So, seemingly, what might be a hard-case struggle, He may remove but other things He may keep so that you keep trusting Him on.

Well, that ministered to me! Thank you, Jesus!

You'll never get out from under needing to use your faith! So sorry, you'll have to use your faith.

Listen, if the Father was pleased with Jesus, did He not say, "this is My Beloved Son in whom I am well pleased?" OK, why did the Father say that? Because Hebrews 11:6 says, "without faith it is impossible to please God." So, obviously, God was recognizing His Son had faith or He wouldn't have said, "this is My Beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." So, you never get out from underneath faith! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
