

Pastor Jack Myers - May 7, 2023 - PM Service

Prophecy:

Now, in the weeks and the months even ahead of us, and even in the years, the river will rise to the place that it is a torrent. If you stay in it - don't fall out of it - you stay in it, you'll be used greatly!

It's because you'll be so full of water, you'll be so full of oil it will ooze out of you. If you stay in it, don't fall out of it, to the point where you'll walk into a room and the very atmosphere will change.

Because of a man and woman full of the Spirit of God, full of the water of God, the water of Heaven, the rain of Heaven, the wind of the Holy Ghost. You're so full of it you walk into a room, it will change the very atmosphere. We're headed in those days.

You're so full of the Word that when you speak the anointing falls, that it just falls on a place, just from the very words you say, the very words that are spoken and the very atmosphere that the anointing is upon.

It's like with worship, there'll be a day when you play, it will carry on the notes, the anointing and the power of God that will impact people's lives.

Exhortation after Prophecy:

One of the things that was said in Canada, people were saying this to the Pastor, "Even as they speak, the anointing hits." People would come in and sit down and just start weeping the whole service. Because the very words that you would speak struck. It's almost like, if you've been parched in a desert for days, maybe even years, and suddenly it starts to rain. Oh, how refreshing! Hallelujah
