

Prophecy - Pastor Jack - Sunday, May 21, 2023 - PM Service

Thus, saith the Spirit of the Lord, “the things are changing and rearranging, it’s falling into My plan. So therefore, yield to the plan that I have for you, says the Spirit of God. Walk in the Light, in the light of things that you already know, that have already been placed on the inside of you,” says the Spirit of God. “Walk in what you know. Not just walking into the ways of the world, or walking in ways you think you should go, but walk in the way that I direct you, the way that I will show.

All these things that are coming, these things that are good, even for My Church. For My Church will be the light, the Light of the world, the Lighthouse of the world, which means that you’ll be the lighthouse of the world. And these things that are coming upon the earth, do not be concerned, for I hold you in My right hand of blessing. I hold you in My right hand of protection. They shall not come nigh your dwelling.

Even when others... they don't understand, they don't see why I've blessed you. It's to show forth to them that they need to come and know who I am. So, therefore, you know, just rejoice in Me, and continue to praise Me, even if you don't understand the circumstances, understand the ways. Listen, I'm working them out for you, don't be concerned, I'm working them all out for you. And there's some things I need to do, even ahead of time, so that by the time that you get there it's already waiting for you,” says the Spirit of God.

“Oh, right at the breaking point. Oh, the ones that you've been believing Me for, right at the breaking point. Your sons, your daughters, your granddaughters, your grandsons, right at the breaking point. Right at the breaking point – Oh just a few short seasons ahead and they shall turn around. I’m working on their hearts”.

“I'm sending laborers, that you've been praying for Me to send laborers across their paths,” says the Spirit of God. “Oh yes, and they do have an ear, they’re listening, they’re waiting, they're watching, they're looking. And yes, I’m removing the blinders, I’m removing the fog. And they shall come, and they will know Me and know, oh yea, yea, yea, yea, yea, yea, they'll do great things for Me. Yea, yea, yea because they'll reach multitudes, upon multitudes, upon multitudes, you see.

Those that are in bondage, sexual perversion, alcohol, drugs, prostitution, all kinds of things. They’re really just searching for Me, you see! They will search, and they will find Me. So, continue to praise Me for their victory. Continue to speak those positive things that you've spoken over them.

For my mighty Right Hand is moving upon them. And there’ll be a suddenly, a suddenly, a suddenly – you shall receive the phone call. Suddenly, suddenly, suddenly they'll be on your front doorstep. But they will be changed. They will be rearranged. They will be full of My Light, you see. And they’ll reach many for Me – for Me” says the Spirit of the Living God.

“Oh, I see a tsunami, a wave, a wave that’s coming. A wave of not destruction, but a wave of glory”, says the Spirit of God. “A wave of glory that will touch not only your house, but it will touch the houses around you in your neighborhoods, in your community, in your cities and even in countries.

“Oh, the light, the light will be so bright, so bright, so bright that there won't be not even a hint of darkness. Oh yes, even satan knows to a certain degree. Yea, he knows because he was with Me for millenniums, millenniums, millenniums and now he’s gone crazy. He’s not even in his right mind, he doesn't even know, he's just so confused, he's so confused, he's so confused, yes, he is, he just doesn't know. Yea, you shall see this.

You shall see My mighty Hand, My mighty Right Hand move strong on your behalf. And strong upon My Church, My Bride. For I am coming soon”, says the Spirit of the Living God. “I’m coming soon for My own. You know they will be a time of separation from the wheat and the chaff. You understand – there will be a separation. But you know what, don’t be concerned about those things. Those are in My timing and in My Hand. No, “just go forth and be the light. Go forth and burn bright.

And multitudes, and multitudes, and multitudes will be swept into the Kingdom of God. Multitudes upon multitudes, in the governments, in the nations, in the people of the nations will be swept. But oh, oh there’ll be those that will reject, those that will refuse to change, those that will desire to live more in darkness than the light.

Oh, that judgment has already been judged because they’ve judged themselves, you see, they judge themselves according to darkness. So don’t rejoice when you see these things but rejoice in Me for what I’m doing. Set your eyes and your heart upon Me about what I’m doing and talk about the things of what I’m doing in the earth.

Don’t talk about the things of the enemy. Don’t even speak of those things that are in darkness, even in your homes, or even think about that. No, No, No, No. Think about the good things, and the positive things and the great things that I’m doing. Because what I am doing is GREATER than that which the enemy is doing”, says the Spirit of the Living God.

Glory to God! Glory to God! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

“And the tangible manifestation, in your homes shall even increase even this week and in the weeks and the months to come. That my presence, there’ll be an awareness of My presence, even in your vehicles, that which you call automobiles.

You shall sense my presence even more. And as you’re walking through and going about your day, you’ll be led in a supernatural way, you see.

Because you’ll just sense My presence being with you, and there’ll be moments over time that will overcome you. That’s just me loving on you, son and daughter. That’s just me loving on you, making My presence known to you. Because, you see, I love thee with an everlasting love. That love will never diminish. But it has over time and millenniums, majorly, this love, it’s unfathomable and it’s impenetrable and you can’t even describe the love of God.

Oh my, my, my... So, I’m just loving you, encouraging you to keep moving forward. Even in your trials and tribulations, be of good cheer. Did I not tell you that you would overcome? Look what I’ve brought you from the past, oh my gosh, and I saved you at last. And when I saved you, purified you, put My Word in you, My Light in you, My anointing upon you. So, walk therefore in that which you know, and continue to seek Me and I’ll show you what you don’t know.”

Hallelujah! Glory to God! Blessed be the Name!
Blessed be the Name of the Lord! Hallelujah!
