

Dr. Jack Myers / September 19th, 2021 / PM Service

For it is in that hour, and is in that season that the Word of God is backed up with Holy Power. This is the hour, this is the season for the fountain of living water is erupting.

The river that flows from the throne of God from the East side is flowing from heaven to earth.

Men and women drenching themselves with the Word and Spirit.

For now is the time, this is the season for the paradigm shift of the Word and the Spirit.

For yesterday is gone, behold the new has come and I will do a new thing says the Spirit of God, so rejoice and be glad.

For even My prophets of old have longed to see what you've seen. For they longed to be in your place, for great will be the rejoicing among My church. For My church will be the church:

the bride victorious, the bride glorious, the bride that is the head above everything.

So rise up in these last days.

Rise up above the troubles of this life. I will set you at my own right hand in that place of authority next to My son Jesus who is in Me and I am in Him, says the Spirit of the living God.

Don't be concerned of what you see on the television. They are liars, they are full of devils, they are demonized. But you on the other hand are full of life and truth and full of the Holy Ghost and you are full of Me. So trust on the inside, listen to My voice, I will lead you and guide you and you will not miss the mark. No, you'll press in, and you'll run your race and you will finish your course Says the Spirit.

And don't be concerned with what you see in the world for these things must come to pass but the end is not yet. No, it's just the beginning of the former and the latter rain.

I'm about to do something that is unprecedented that has not been done in the history of the church. I am about to pour out My Spirit out upon all flesh around the world and the harvest of souls shall come in and greater will be the rejoicing and it's a never ending force that cannot be stopped. For My force will not be stopped and I will have the last say, says the Spirit of living God.

And I've written at the end of the book, You Win! I said you win! you win!

The living Word says you win!

You win! (14 x) (The church rejoices!) We win! (9x)

We win in our health, we win in our finances, we win with our children, we win with our grandchildren. we win! we win! The devil cannot have them! The devil cannot have them!

We win!

The devil cannot have our government either. For the kingdoms of this earth shall become the kingdoms of our God because we win. The kingdoms of this earth shall become the Kingdoms of our God and we will reign and rule. You cannot stop the church, you cannot stop the Bible. You cannot stop the word of God, impossible!

Church rejoices!