

Love's Valentine

His Love Divine,
it transcends time.

I choose this day,
I choose this night,
to serve my King,
with all my might!

The word no,
will not ascend,
from my lips
to His ears.

I will not give my King
cause for tears.

He has freed my fears,
and given me His all.

For all my years,
I wish to be...

Love's Valentine!
